

15 KID-FRIENDLY THINGS TO DO IN FEBRUARY

Hand out Kindness Hearts during the entire month of February.

Celebrate Groundhog Day by making an adorable groundhog puppet to play with.

Send a hug-o-gram to the grandparents.

Recycle your crayons to make heart-shaped ones.

Make a batch of pink fluffy slime for some sensory fun.

Bundle up and go on a heart shape nature scavenger hunt.

Play with snow indoors.

Make a batch of peanut butter dog treats for your four-legged friend.

Use the wilted roses to set up a flower petal sensory activity for the kids.

Crush rose petals and make rose petal perfume.

Make marshmallow krispie treats.

Celebrate Abe Lincoln by making a craft stick log cabin.

Make a cotton ball wig, and pretend you're George Washington!

Spend some time in the backyard counting birds.

Visit the library! Did you know that February is Library Lovers' Month?